

APPALACHIAN FORUM SERIES

APPALACHIAN MEDIA INSTITUTE'S FILM SHOWCASE

AUDITORIUM AT W.T. YOUNG LIBRARY

THURSDAY DEC 1ST

Event starts at 3:30pm; films followed by Q and A with AMI students

Sponsored by: Appalshop, the UK Appalachian Center, and Appalachian Studies

SEARCHING FOR AN APPALACHIAN ACCENT (15 MIN)

Explores the stigma attached to regional dialects from those both within the area, and outside.

A LITTLE PIECE OF ME (10MIN)

Focuses on three stories about growing up gay in the mountains.

TRUE COST OF COAL (13MIN)

Through personal stories, "True Cost of Coal" explores the mark the coal industry has left on eastern Kentucky communities, and what the next phase of the industry "coal-to-liquid" may mean to coalfield communities.

